On March 18, 1965, MI T-1 advised as follows:

On March 18, 1965, [redacted] representing Friends of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee group, University of Wisconsin - Madison, had announced that a march of civil rights demonstrators would begin at noon on March 18 at the University of Wisconsin campus. The march would proceed to the Federal Post Office building on Minona Avenue, Madison, where a vigil would be kept until 10:00 p.m. each night, resuming at 8:00 a.m. each morning for the next three days. On Saturday, March 20, 1965, another march will begin on the campus, proceed to the State Capitol and end at the Post Office building where the vigil will be in progress. The marchers plan to wait there until the return of three bus loads of University of Wisconsin - Madison students which had left Madison, Wisconsin on March 16, 1965 en route to Washington, D. C. for the purpose of participating in a demonstration in sympathy with the Negroes of Selma, Alabama [redacted]

35 individuals, who appeared to be young students, showed up at the Federal Post Office building shortly after noon, carrying signs which called for the protection of civil rights demonstrators in Alabama. The group walked and sang but no violence or trouble of any kind was noted. The group left about 2:00 p.m. without any explanation but Inspector [redacted] noted that the weather was near zero with a bitter wind blowing. [redacted] aka [redacted]

Inspector [redacted] also advised that another call had been received on March 18, 1965 by the Police Department from [redacted] as a representative of the Wisconsin Students Association which is the regular student government group at the University of Wisconsin. [redacted] advised the Police Department that a civil rights demonstration march was scheduled for Saturday, March 20, 1965 from the campus to the State Capitol and the Federal Post Office building in Madison. [redacted] said that he and another student named [redacted] were organizing this march.

On March 19, 1965, MI T-1 advised that the three day vigil planned for the Federal Post Office building in Madison had apparently been abandoned at least temporarily because of the cold weather. Informant said that plans concerning a resumption of this vigil were uncertain and probably would depend upon the weather. No activity was reported for the morning of March 19, 1965 and the weather continued to be cold and windy. MI T-1 further advised that the only definite plans known at present on the part of student civil rights demonstration groups called for a march from the campus by a group of student demonstrators to the State Capitol building at Madison on Saturday, March 20, 1965. This march was scheduled to end in a rally in the State Capitol building at noon and the sponsoring groups are Friends of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, Wisconsin Student Association Human Rights Committee, University of Wisconsin Young Democrats, and the United States National Students Association. The informant said that Lt. Governor Patrick Lucey was reported to have agreed to speak at the rally.

FREEDOM FLYERS
MADISON, WISCONSIN

On March 22, 1965 MI T-1 advised that the rally planned for Sunday, March 21, 1965, had taken place. Informant said that a group of about 75 University of Wisconsin students formed in one of the dormitory areas on campus, and marched to the Capitol singing Civil Rights songs and picking up a few of the students en route. The rally began at 1:30 p.m. in front of the State Capitol on Capitol Square and by that time the crowd numbered approximately 200. The main speaker of the rally was Lieutenant Governor PATRICK J. LUCEY who spoke in favor of a State Fair Housing Bill. Another speaker was [redacted] WIS, of the Wisconsin Student Association, who said that he had traveled with the Freedom Flyers group by plane to Montgomery, Alabama ALA. earlier in the week. Also speaking were [redacted] b6 b7C [redacted] of the University of Wisconsin, and the Reverend Robert Trobaugh of the Wesley Methodist Church. WIS

The "Wisconsin State Journal", Madison daily newspaper, in its Sunday edition reported the return of the main part of students connected with the Freedom Flyers movement from their trip to Washington. The group arrived back in Madison at the University of Wisconsin Memorial Union about 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 20, 1965 and immediately dispersed to their various homes.

FREEDOM FLYERS
MADISON, WISCONSIN

On April 6, 1965, MI T-1 furnished the following information.

On March 16, 1965, three bus loads of students, aggregating a little over 100 in number, left Madison, Wisconsin for Selma, Alabama to demonstrate support for civil rights workers in that city. Much of the organizing activity which took place in connection with this trip was conducted by [redacted] University of Wisconsin (UW) student, and a great deal of the actual organizing and telephone calling took place from [redacted] apartment at [redacted]

Before the group left Madison, a few of them were given the telephone numbers of the following individuals in Madison so that they could call in case of trouble or in case help was needed:

Arriving in Chicago, Illinois, the busses were re-routed to Washington, D. C. after a delay of approximately two hours on the basis of instructions from leaders of the Student Nonviolent Co-ordinating Committee in the South, believed to have been located in either Montgomery Alabama or Atlanta, Georgia.

The three bus loads then proceeded to Washington, D. C., where they joined with other students, many from Boston, Mass., headquartered at the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple, and engaged in picketing in front of the White House and the holding of seminars on various aspects of civil rights, including lobbying for the benefit of some students who were to attempt to contact their representatives in Congress while in Washington.

These students, as a general rule, were well behaved, and no trouble of any kind was experienced during the trip, according to the informant.

[redacted] and [redacted] were the apparent leaders of the group, with most of the authority apparently centering in [redacted] Other individuals with the group were [redacted] was said to have been [redacted] for the Student Nonviolent Co-ordinating Committee in Mississippi during the summer of 1964. [redacted] did not accompany the group.

b6

On Thursday, March 18, 1965, one bus load of students left Washington to return to Madison. On Friday, March 19, 1965, the two remaining busses, carrying all except five of the students, left Washington to return to Madison. The five students who remained were [redacted] and [redacted] and one other unidentified individual. The five who remained had some general plans to continue demonstrating in some fashion, but their plans were not very clear and were not generally known to the others.

MI T-1 expressed the opinion that Freedom Flyers was a temporary organization, formed under the sponsorship of the Friends of the Student Nonviolent Co-ordinating Committee group on the campus of the UW for the purpose of participating in the Selma crisis on civil rights. With the return of the group to Madison, as described above, the informant believed the Freedom Flyers, as a group, had terminated its activity and is no longer in existence.

MIDWEST STUDENT CIVIL LIBERTIES COORDINATING COMMITTEE (MSCLCC)

On May 9, 1961, a source advised that a conference was held on May 5 and 6, 1961, at the University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of discussing the creation of an organization known as the MSCLCC. This source advised that at this conference a temporary organization, to be known as the MSCLCC, was created, and that the purpose of this group would be to include in its program all civil liberties problems, with particular emphasis on the abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. It was also stated that the MSCLCC would be opposed to any suppression of ideas, whether it be governmental, economic or social. Further, the MSCLCC was to take an aggressive position and fight for the preservation of liberties granted by the First Amendment, and all tactics furthering this end are good. This source also stated that at the conference it was decided that the MSCLCC would continue on a temporary basis until the fall of 1961, at which time a new and permanent organization would be formed.

On February 5, 1962, the above source advised that RICHARD CRILEY, Executive Secretary of the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights, was the adult advisor in setting up and organizing the initial Founding Conference of the MSCLCC. This source advised that throughout the period May, 1961 through February, 1962, the MSCLCC was merely a name utilized by RICHARD CRILEY in an effort to provide guidance, direction and control to the Student Civil Liberties Movement.

On February 5, 1962, the above source advised that, since the original Founding Conference, at which the MSCLCC was created as a temporary organization, there has been no sustained program of activities by the MSCLCC. This same source advised that during the fall of 1961 no additional conference was held as originally planned to create a permanent MSCLCC, and, as of February, 1962, there is no organization, formal or informal, in existence utilizing the name MSCLCC.

A second source on June 16, 1961 advised that during 1961 RICHARD CRILEY was a member of the State Committee, Communist Party of Illinois.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

CONFIDENTIAL

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including National Functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963 for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful co-existence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternatives."

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals or if five or more people so desire a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

The second source has also advised that at the founding convention it was voted that the organization should be temporarily headquartered in San Francisco, California, although no specific physical location was decided upon. This same source advised on June 29, 1964 that the temporary headquarters of this organization is 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, which is the headquarters of the W. E. B. DuBois Club of San Francisco.

Both sources have advised that at the founding convention, two officers were elected:

PHILIP CHAPIN DAVIS, President, and CARL ELLENGER BLOICE, Publications Chairman.

A third source has advised that on October 26, 1962 PHILIP DAVIS attended a CP recruiting class held at 1579 Scenic Avenue, Berkeley, California.

A fourth source has advised that CARL BLOICE, reporter for the "Peoples World" newspaper, was on April 3, 1964 elected to the newly organized San Francisco County Committee of the CP.

The "Peoples World" is a West Coast Communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

WISCONSIN SOCIALIST CLUB

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On December 10, 1957, source one described the Wisconsin Socialist Club (WSC) as then a duly registered and authorized student campus organization at the University of Wisconsin (UW) with a charter membership of 21, including [redacted] and [redacted] who prior to the dissolution of the Labor Youth League (LYL) were publicly known as [redacted] of the UW chapter of the LYL. On November 30, 1960, source two identified [redacted] as then a member of the State Committee of the Communist Party of Wisconsin (CP).

On June 23, 1958, source three described the WSC as an organization founded primarily on principles closely allied with those of English socialists, with many of its members genuine socialists, but source observed there existed a pro-Marxist element in the club, including [redacted] and [redacted] which element had taken the lead in policy-making functions of the WSC. On September 20, 1960, this source reported that [redacted] and [redacted] had been elected [redacted] respectively of the WSC for the 1960-1961 school year.

The November 16, 1963 issue of "The Daily Cardinal," student organ at the UW, identified [redacted] as the then [redacted] of the WSC. [redacted] according to source four, also during 1964 became the [redacted] of a movement to form a national Marxist youth organization. During April, 1964, source four reported that [redacted] had recently been recruited into the CP. This source also identified [redacted] as collaborating with [redacted] in the founding of a new Marxist youth organization, and in February, 1964 source five identified [redacted] as [redacted] of the WSC.
